About Duksung

The school was first established in 1920, as part of the drive for improved education which arose out of the March 1st Movement. Its founder was Ms. Cha Mirisa, an educator and leader of the Joseon Women's Education Society. At the time it was known as the Geunhwa Academy.

In 1950 Duksung was established as a junior college, two years later it was restructured into a 4 year university. In 1984, the main campus was moved to its present location in Dobong-gu, Seoul.
